To whom it may concern,

My name is Scott Eggers and I am the Operations Manager for the Big Wave World Tour.

I have had the pleasure of getting to know Eric Akiskalian over the past 7 years through our individual involvement in the big wave surfing industry and I can tell you that from my experience of working with him both in the water and on land, that he gets the job done.

He is a highly experienced PWC operator, tow-in instructor, and ocean safety rescue personal and takes his job very serious. He recently worked with us on the Oregon Pro Big Wave Event last month with the handling of local logistics, social media and water safety.

We could not have been happier with his commitment and expertise, which added to the success of our event. He has a solid attitude, is very easy to work with and always follows through with his commitment.

If I can answer any other questions or provide further assistance, you can reach me at.

Regards,
